

Karachi Development Authority has always consists of a devoted, committed and qualified staffs who serving for the wellbeing of citizens. Chief Engineer Ram Chand is also one of them who are exposing their abilities in

KDA, they are taking esteem efforts to developed a parks, sewerage system and water supply. We are going to bring out development plans for the city in

انٹرویو / رام چند

Ram Chand

Chief Engineer

different mega projects across the province. Mr. Ram Chand earned B.E Civil from renowned NED university Karachi in 1984, after the completion of B.E, he join KDA in 1986 as a assistant executive engineer BPS 17. During his professional carrier different project of public health and works department in Thatta, Dadu, Kyamari Town etc, also successfully completed under the subservient of him while since last year KDA Chief Engineers charge has been given to him. During order to bring changes in infrastructure and betterment of roads, bridges, parks and playgrounds Chief Engineer said that. Mr. Ram Chand said that under the supervision of Director General KDA Mr. Samiuddin Siddiqui illegal occupancy have been evicted by concerned department and now new schemes may be brought on those KDA land.

interview Mr. Ram Chand said that as a development Authority KDA has always planned for residential scheme to facilitate downtrodden communities of city. He said that with the cooperation and coordination of Sindh government different mega projects and housing schemes are being built in city. Answering to a question regarding engineering staff he said that various Sindh government projects also completed by KDA engineers while there in no doubt that we have a very qualified staff who are the capable of completed a mega schemes. Mr. Ram Chand

